NOW IS YOUR CHANCE.

TRY YOUR HAND AT GUESSING—
GOLD GIVEN AWAY.

Who Will be the Next Marshal, Collector and Treasurer and Assessor? The Ledger's Scheme for Your Amusement.

In order that the readers of THE LEDGER may have some diversion with which to occupy their minds, and desiring at the same time to attract public attention to our newsy paper, we have concluded to propose a guessing contest, and hope that our subscribers and readers may become interested in our effort to afford amusement.

Public interest during the next few weeks will be more centralized in the ensuing city election than in any other local matter, and we have, therefore, selected that as the basis of our guessing contest.

We have selected as the races to be guessed upon these three: City Marshal, Collector and Treasurer and Assessor, for the reason that they seem to be the most complicated, and more interest will probably be manifested in them, as there are three or more candidates for each office. The outcome in these contests will be harder to anticipate, and, therefore, our scheme will prove the more interesting.

For the office of City Marshal there are six candidates announced, as follows: M. E. McKellup, E. W. Fitzgerald, John W. Alexander, John V. Day, James Redmond and W. B. Dawson.

For Collector and Treasurer there are two contestants: James W. Fitzgerald and Horatio Picklin.

Also three for Assessor: Charles D. Shepard, Fred W. Bauer and John Walsh.

There are 1,422 votes registered.

We propose to give in prizes $17.50 in gold, as follows:

The first prize of $10 in gold will be given to the first person who makes the winner in each contest and also guesses nearest to the exact number of votes received by each.

A second prize of $5 in gold will be given to the person making the next best guess.

A third prize of $2.50 in gold will be given to the person making the third best guess.

In making guesses the following rules must be observed:

First—All guesses must be made out on the following form cut from THE LEDGER and forwarded by mail or handed in person to this office.

Second—Guesses must be made in each of the three contests in order to receive consideration.

Third—Your name and Postoffice address must be signed at the bottom of your guess.

In awarding the second and third prizes no account of the time they are received will be taken into consideration. These prizes will be given to those entitled to them by reason of their guesses, no matter at what time said guesses are received.

All guesses must be made so that they will reach this office by 5 o'clock p. m. on Saturday, December 31st, 1902.

Any one, man, woman or child, can guess. Fill out this blank as indicated and cut it out and forward by mail to PUBLIC LEDGER, Mayville, Ky., or hand in person to this office.

UNDER ARREST.

Members of the Chamber Charged With Fraud.

Story of San-Leroy's Connection With the Panama Swindle.

The Penalties to Which the Heads of the Panama Company Have Made Themselves Liable From One to Five Years Imprisonment and a Fine.

PARIS, Dec. 17.—M. Charles Alme Marie Desseps, M. Marius Etienne Fottage and M. San-Leroy have been arrested by direction of the minister of justice, M. Bourgeois, for their alleged connection with the Panama canal frauds.

M. Henri Louis Felix Cottu, for whose arrest an order was also issued, has fled to Vienna. San-Leroy is charged with having accepted a bribe as a member of the chamber of deputies.

The charges against the officers of the company on which summonses were previously served, and on which they have been arrested, are that they have jointly made use of fraudulent imaginary credit, that they have dissipated capital entrusted to them for a specific purpose, and that they have swindled others out of part or all of their means of living on their fortunes. These offenses come within the reach of seven articles of the penal code.

The penalties to which the heads of the Panama Co. have made themselves liable, should the theory of the prosecution be established, are thus laid down: "Whoever, by making use of false name, or quality, or resorting to fraudulent devices to persuade another or others of the reality of imaginary enterprises or of power or credit, or to give rise to the hope or fear of a chimerical event or undertaking, attempts to obtain money or any other property or receipts or discharges, is liable to one year's imprisonment at least, and five years at most, and a fine of from $2 to $120."

The convict may also be deprived of civil rights from the day on which he leaves the prison for five years, at least, and ten at most, and be, moreover, forbidden to vote at legislative, municipal, or other elections, or to carry arms or to act as guardian. The accomplice is liable to the same penalties.

It is noteworthy that the accused parties in this case are not to be tried for infractions of the laws regulating financial and industrial companies, but under articles of the common law.

The theory, therefore, of the prosecution is that the Panama affair was a swindle from the beginning. The original concessionaires are sheltered by prescription.

San-Leroy is expected to be badly implicated by documents and other evidence. San-Leroy was not on the Panama board. Suspicion was always attached to him on account of his sudden change of front in the lottery committee of the chamber of deputies, when the lottery loan was being voted on.

At first he opposed the loan, but he turned the scale at the last moment by voting in its favor. In the hearing before the Panama investigating committee, a few days ago, Mr. San-Leroy stated that he changed his vote in obedience to the wishes of his constituents.

M. Rondeleux, another former deputy, testified before the commission that he drafted the first report of the lottery committee of the chamber against the lottery bill, and was so amazed when the committee rejected the report, owing to M. San-Leroy's change of front, that he resigned the chairmanship of the committee. It is understood that the government has documentary evidence, showing the exact amount paid to M. San-Leroy for his change of front.

Besides making the arrests the authorities have searched the residences of Desseps, Fottage, Cottu and San-Leroy, and seized a mass of documents throwing new and important light on the Panama frauds.

Souvenir Coins Sent Out.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 17.—The first World's fair souvenir coins were sent out from the government mint Friday. Col. Elliott P. Shepard, of New York, had a representative at the sub-treasury early in the morning and received 10,000 of the coins, which he will sell for $2 each. The 50,000 destined for Chicago occupied five kegs in sealed bags of 5,000 each. They were directed to the sub-treasury at Chicago. Four of the coins were left out. They were the first coin, which sold in New York for $10,000 the fourth, 14,924 and 18,923 coins. These sold in the aggregate for $15,000. The various packages will be well guarded on their journey.

Agent the Inheritance Law.
NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—State Controller Frank Campbell will recommend in his forthcoming report some amendments to the collateral inheritance law. He believes that hereafter all estates should pay 1 per cent. on bequests over $10,000 and under $100,000; 2 per cent. on amounts between $100,000 and $500,000; 3 per cent. between $500,000 and $1,000,000 and 5 per cent. on amounts exceeding $1,000,000. Controller Campbell's argument is that during their lifetime millionaires evade payment of a just personal tax and the proposed amendments would enable the state to tax the fortunes equitably at least once in a generation.

MEXICO AROUSED.

The Government Demands Security From the United States for the Action of Revolutionists.

MONTREY, Mex., Dec. 17.—The Mexican government will demand of the United States that decisive steps be taken toward the wiping out of the band of revolutionists who have their rendezvous on American soil in the lower Rio Grande border. Gov. Manuel Reyes, of the state of Nueva Leon, has forwarded to President Harrison documentary proof that a plot exists among rebels now in Texas to send an armed expedition into Mexico.

It is believed that serious international trouble will grow out of the San Ignacio outrage if the United States government does not show its disapproval of the act of the revolutionists by putting a large body of troops in the field after the perpetrators and their sympathizers. The Mexican government is strengthening its already strong force of soldiers on the border by rushing about 3,000 troops to the turbulent section from interior garrisons.

The Teutonic was starting as he reached Queenstown. He chased it in a special steamer, telegraphed far ahead, caught the liner and got aboard with bag and baggage, while the passengers cheered.

MURDERER GUILLOTINED.

Crampon's Head Cut Off in the Presence of a Jeering Crowd.

PARIS, Dec. 17.—Eugene Crampon, the murderer of two men, Friday morning paid the penalty for his crimes, and the cannibal that gathered to see his execution greatly enjoyed the spectacle afforded by the miserable, cowardly wretch as he was literally carried to the guillotine.

It was generally known that the execution would occur in the Place de la Roquette Friday morning, and long before daylight the crowd began to gather. Rude jests were bandied about, and the usual scenes that make disgraceful the carrying out of the death sentence in Paris were enacted.

At exactly 7 o'clock the prison door swung inward and the procession could be seen approaching. Crampon, who was in an agony of fear, was supported by warders and accompanied by a priest, who, as he walked, read the service for the dying. Grim and awful the red guillotine loomed directly ahead of the little party. It was only a few steps from the prison.

After walking a few feet, Crampon raised his eyes and saw it. With a terrible shriek, he threw himself backward and fell to the ground. All efforts to induce him to rise were fruitless, and he groveled on the flagstones, begging most piteously for his life. To a person of any sensibility the scene was one of the deepest horror, but the crowd of roughs and abandoned women took the keenest delight in witnessing the abject fear and listening to the frantic appeals of the murderer.

It became necessary for the executioner's assistants to lift Crampon to his feet, but even then he hung limp in their arms and they were compelled to carry him to the guillotine. While some of the assistants supported him others quickly bound him and threw him against the bascule or lever block.

Even then he did not cease his struggles. His contortions were terrible, but they did not last long. The bascule was dropped into place and the assistants shoved it forward until Crampon's neck rested in the inette, or curved hole. Then "Monsieur de Paris," attired, as usual, in the conventional frock coat and silk hat, touched the spring holding the knife.

Silently and like a streak of lightning the bright blade fell, and Crampon's head dropped into the open basket awaiting it. The execution was the most horrible one that has been witnessed in Paris in many years. The crowd, highly pleased with the entertainment the state had afforded them, dispersed, laughing and joking with each other.

The Express Company Will Lose It.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—General Agent Stedman, of the Wells-Fargo Co., says that his company has assumed the blame for the loss of the two packages of money which were shipped from this city a few weeks ago to Galveston. As soon as the necessary papers are made out the express people will reimburse the banks to which the money was consigned. The packages, one containing $10,000 and the other $25,000, were despoiled while in the hands of the company, Mr. Stedman says. The thieves have not been caught.

The Restricted Immigration Question.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—The World Friday morning prints the result of its effort to ascertain from governors of various states in the union their views regarding the question of immigration. From the east, west, north and south restriction of immigration is urged, but opinions differ as to the methods to be employed. All the governors heard from oppose absolute prohibition, except for warding off disease.

It appears the unfortunate woman supported the cause of Salvador in 1890.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The Times prints a dispatch from Sydney, N. S. W., to the effect that for the next three months no official salaries will be paid in Samoa, except those of the chief justice and the president of the council. Even the King is not exempt.
